Weekly Learning Review - Year 6

16.10.20

In Maths this week we have:

- Been learning about equivalent fractions.
- Been learning how to simplify fractions.
- Been converting between mixed numbers and improper fractions.

In English this week we have:

- Been learning how to spell words ending with -tious.
- Been using adverbials to build cohesion in our writing.
- Been inferring information from a text.

Other:

- This week, in theme, we have been celebrating Black History Month. We learnt about Rosa Parks and her bus boycott which changed history.
- In history, we have been learning about how propaganda was used throughout World War Two.
- In science, we have been continuing with our learning about light. We created our own colour wheels to investigate how we see white.

This week's homework:

- Maths-practising our Year 6 key skills.
- Spelling-learning our key Year 6 spellings.
- Reading-daily reading and ensuring that reading diaries are filled in.
